Letter of Invitation

Dear Friends

January 25, 2010

It is our pleasure to announce the International Janusz Korczak Conference to be held in Tokyo, Japan, between August 5 and 9th this year.

The theme of the conference is "Children's Rights in 21 century". This is the first such conference to be held in Japan. And here, representatives of International Janusz Korczak Association from all over the world including researchers, scholars, as well as those who practice Korczak's teaching will gather here. And together with their counterparts from all over Japan you can present and exchange common projects and ideas, for better world that Korczak envisioned. As we expect a large attendance with in Japan, including students and laymen, we urge you to join this Conference, which, indeed, will become a milestone on Korczak's heritage. To join, please fill in the attached Overseas Attendance Application Form and send back to Ms. Batia Gilad, respectively. batia.gilad@gmail.com

Because of the uniqueness of this conference, intensive media coverage is expected. The opening ceremony will be attended by about 1200 persons, with representatives from each countries's Embassy.

With New Year's Greetings,

Fumikatsu Inoue
